Mr. KEAN

IS under the Neceſſity of informing the Gentlemen of the Univerſity, (from whom he has already received the moſt flattering Marks of Approbation) of poſtponing his intended till Tomorrow Evening, Wedneſday, Nov. 24. The Hour of Exhibition will be as printed in his laſt Addreſs.

Evening Lounge

Mr. KEAN, by the particular Solicitation of ſome Ladies and Gentlemen, is induced to continue his Lecture for one Evening more, which cannot, from the Nature of his preſent Engagements, be extended to any longer Period.

Tickets, Two Shillings each, to be had at Mr. Bliſs's, Bookſeller, and at the Mitre Inn, in the High-Street.